

Job Title: Human Rights Ambassador – AYP Program

Location: Bloemfontein

Job Type: Contract / Full-time (Program-Based)

Reports to: Paralegal

Job Summary

The Human Rights Ambassador will support the implementation of the Adolescent and Young People (AYP) Program by promoting human rights, dignity, and access to justice for adolescents and young people. The role focuses on rights education, advocacy, community engagement, and referrals to appropriate services, ensuring that AYP are empowered to access health, social, and legal support in a safe and non-discriminatory environment.

Key Roles and Responsibilities

Human Rights Education and Advocacy

- Conduct human rights awareness sessions for adolescents and young people (ages 15–24).
- Promote knowledge of sexual and reproductive health rights, gender equality, and access to services.
- Identify and address human rights violations affecting AYP, including stigma, discrimination, and abuse.

Community Outreach and Engagement

- Engage with schools, community structures, and local stakeholders to promote AYP rights.
- Mobilize adolescents and young people to participate in program activities and dialogues.
- Support community campaigns aligned with national and organizational human rights priorities.

Referral and Support Services

- Provide basic rights-based guidance and referrals to health, psychosocial, social, and legal services.

Minimum Qualifications and Experience

Education

- Minimum of a Grade 12 certificate; relevant tertiary qualification in Human Rights, Social Sciences, Community Development, or related field is an advantage.

Experience

- At least 1–2 years' experience in community outreach, advocacy, or youth-focused programs.
- Experience working with adolescents and young people (15–24) is essential.
- Exposure to HIV, SRHR, GBV, or human rights programs is an advantage.
